

BOOKS AND AUTHORS---NEWS REVIEWS AND COMMENT

The Great War from Various Points of View

From Lodz to Verdun
 BY HENRI DE LAUNAY. A Strategic History of the War. Third Edition. By Count de Launay. With 100 maps and plans. 12mo. $2.50. H. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

CHILDREN of the DESERT
 By Louis Dodge

"From the beginning... the novel has that indescribable thrill and beat that is only felt in works of genius... A better or more promising novel has not been written in a long while. It is as good a story as 'The Great Divide' is a play."—N. Y. P. D. in the New York Evening Globe.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

EASTER
 Books and Cards

Three Book Suggestions
 Each net, 50 cents (by mail 58 cents)
 The Glory and Joy of the Resurrection.
 The Radiant Morn.
 "We Would See Jesus."
 For the Children: Bible in Picture and Story.
 We can supply any book listed in these pages. Special attention given to mail and telephone orders.

THE SERVICE BOOK SHOP
 American Tract Society, Park Ave. and 40th St., N. Y.

No More War!
 Read
 International Government
 By L. S. WOOD. For a Plan by Which War May Be Prevented in the Future. With an introduction by BERNARD SHAW
 The most important contribution to the subject ever published. 8vo. Cloth, $2.50 net.
 At All Bookstores.

BRENTANO'S
 5th Av. & 27th St., New York

Second Edition Ready Today
ONLY A DOG
 By Bertha Whitridge Smith
 The Baltimore Evening Sun says—Long years ago the celebrated novelist, "Ouida," wrote her pathetic story, "A Dog of Flanders." Today Mrs. Bertha Whitridge Smith has written another and a true story concerning a Dog of Flanders, a story that will perpetuate one of the incidents of the world war now convulsing Europe.

A NEW gives a publisher, if he believes in him, a difficult task. How is he to convince the readers that these rushing days that the author is most exceptional? That task is before us in presenting Francis R. Bellamy's novel, "The Balance."
 Published by (Doubleday, Page & Co.)

NOBODY'S BOY
 (SANS FAMILLE)
 Horace Malet's famous masterpiece "dramatic, a particularly heavy welcome. It is beautifully translated. Bookman." "To be commended to young and old for its charm of style, its human interest, and its engaging ideas."—N. Y. Times.
 At All Bookstores
 4 Colored Illustrations, $1.25 net.
 CUPPLES & LEON COMPANY

THE HIDING PLACES
 A Novel by Allen French
 CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

Comedy and Tragedy Portrayed in Fiction

The Curse of Bigotry
 BY HENRI DE LAUNAY. A Strategic History of the War. Third Edition. By Count de Launay. With 100 maps and plans. 12mo. $2.50. H. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

Here is a book which deserves, for two reasons, to become a classic. One is its perfect delineation—or, rather, reproduction—of the speech, manners and customs, and whole life of one of the most interesting and at the same time most neglected of the original elements of our composite population. New Englanders, and Tennessee mountaineers, and Virginians, and Louisiana creoles, and many others, old and new, have been written well to death. But the sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch, who were there "in the good old colony days," and who have remained of this day less changed than perhaps any other element, have received all too

Preparing for Peace
 THE WAR AFTER THE WAR. By Isaac F. MARSHALL. With 100 illustrations. 12mo. pp. 272. The Johns Lane Company, N. Y. C.

Endorsed by Major-General Leonard Wood
THE PLATTSBURG MANUAL
 A TEXT-BOOK FOR FEDERAL TRAINING CAMPS.

Based on the actual experience of the authors as instructors at Plattsburg. Tells a "rookie" everything he needs to know. Gets him ready to take the fullest advantage of a camp from the first day. Good for review day-by-day at camp and afterward to solidify the knowledge acquired. Concluding chapters especially for the "rookie" working for the Officers' Reserve Corps. Indispensable to anyone doing intensive military training. Over 150 illustrations picture the right way and the wrong way of doing essential things. Get the book now.

8vo, 300 pages. $2.00.
 At all bookstores.
 The Century Co., New York City.

SHOESTRINGS
 By MAXIMILIAN FOSTER
 Author of "Rich Man, Poor Man," etc.

When Mr. Tams beat the bucket shop—
 He cleaned up thousands. He threw up his job as shoe walker and started to be a real gentleman—social light. But the army of sharks after his money, his fatal mistake in inviting all of Mrs. Wallop's boarders to his pretentious bungalow—and a queen other unforeseen difficult make his social flight short but eventful. Read this new book. "It's good for several laughs to say the least."—Phila. Press.

THIS IS AN APPLETON BOOK
 APPLETON-DOUBLEDAY-Page & Co.

THE MIDDLE PASTURE
 MATHILDE BILBO
 Published by (Doubleday, Page & Co.)

CHILD WELFARE
 You are careful about your child's companions. Are you as careful in selecting his books? He will seek out in life the counterparts of his heroes in reading. The Cupples & Leon imprint is a safe guide and safeguard; it stands for idealism in the selection and editing of MSS. of BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

CUPPLES & LEON CO.
 443 Fourth Avenue, New York.

THE HIDING PLACES
 A Novel by Allen French
 CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

A Gambler's Fortune
 THE STARS IN THEIR COURSES. By HENRI DE LAUNAY. A Strategic History of the War. Third Edition. By Count de Launay. With 100 maps and plans. 12mo. $2.50. H. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

It is the story of a gambler who stakes everything and loses and, in losing, wins. He was a gambler by inheritance, confirmed by inhumanity. His parents' ill treatment drove him to waywardness, and for that waywardness his father disinherited him, giving his fortune to a scoundrelly nephew—the hero's cousin. In a desperate hour he loses even his mood came to that cousin and flees into infamous exile.

Impossible but Fascinating
 THE LITTED VEIL. By J. J. Bell. 12mo. pp. 308. Doubleday & Co.

It is impossible, of course. So, for all that, it is most detective stories. At the same time many things which seem fully as impossible do actually occur in the real life of this workaday world. Perhaps, therefore, it would better not dwell too much upon the impossibility even of that astounding clock, the more than human administrator of the fortune in diamonds.

On the Verge of Hysteria
 THE LITTED VEIL. By J. J. Bell. 12mo. pp. 308. Doubleday & Co.

Clorinda is all the time on the verge of hysterics. That is the obvious explanation of her morbid and contradictory conduct. Whether coming to a closely veiled confession, fencing with her confessor in society, breaking off her own wedding service by whom she had been so nearly married, she is always more pathological than sympathetic. She commands our interest, as a half psychotic and half madwoman. Her conduct is too abnormal to be explained by the ordinary physical phenomenon, but it is too sane to be explained by the ordinary physical phenomenon. Her conduct is too abnormal to be explained by the ordinary physical phenomenon, but it is too sane to be explained by the ordinary physical phenomenon.

The Eternal Adolescent
 "PIP." A Romance of Youth. By Ian HUGHES. 12mo. pp. 308. Doubleday & Co.

Your schoolboy is your true Proteus. Hughes gave us an immortal picture of him; and long afterward Kipling gave us another, equally authentic and equally immortal, but as different as day from night. Other writers, chiefly of the last generation, have depicted him with sufficient accuracy, but no two alike. Now comes Captain Bell with his picture of him, which also is lifelike and deserves to live forever, and is quite unlike any that has gone before.

Contraries
 FRIDONIA. By Arnold Bennett. 12mo. pp. 308. Doubleday & Co.

Often as it has been tried, one of the most difficult things in imaginative writing is to portray conditions reversed from the normal. There occurs, of course, the case of Lewis Carroll; but such genius does not flash upon the world in every publishing season. The same theme was much cultivated, too, by W. S. Gilbert, with equal success; but then opera librettos are not novels. Mr. Guthrie (Anstey) and Mr. Bennett have essayed the task in sustained narrative, with much success within certain limitations. But Mr. Marshall has striven to outdo them all by portraying a deep where not merely a few things but all things are reversed.

EL SUPREMO
 By EDWARD LUCAS WHITE

Possibly the greatest historical novel yet written by an American. The novel compares favorably with "The Sign of the Cross" and "The Last of the Mohicans" and is practically all the leading literary journals of America. "El Supremo" is now more talked of in high literary circles than any novel of recent years.

The Curse of Bigotry
 BY HENRI DE LAUNAY. A Strategic History of the War. Third Edition. By Count de Launay. With 100 maps and plans. 12mo. $2.50. H. P. Dutton & Co., New York.

Here is a book which deserves, for two reasons, to become a classic. One is its perfect delineation—or, rather, reproduction—of the speech, manners and customs, and whole life of one of the most interesting and at the same time most neglected of the original elements of our composite population. New Englanders, and Tennessee mountaineers, and Virginians, and Louisiana creoles, and many others, old and new, have been written well to death. But the sturdy Pennsylvania Dutch, who were there "in the good old colony days," and who have remained of this day less changed than perhaps any other element, have received all too

Preparing for Peace
 THE WAR AFTER THE WAR. By Isaac F. MARSHALL. With 100 illustrations. 12mo. pp. 272. The Johns Lane Company, N. Y. C.

Endorsed by Major-General Leonard Wood
THE PLATTSBURG MANUAL
 A TEXT-BOOK FOR FEDERAL TRAINING CAMPS.

Based on the actual experience of the authors as instructors at Plattsburg. Tells a "rookie" everything he needs to know. Gets him ready to take the fullest advantage of a camp from the first day. Good for review day-by-day at camp and afterward to solidify the knowledge acquired. Concluding chapters especially for the "rookie" working for the Officers' Reserve Corps. Indispensable to anyone doing intensive military training. Over 150 illustrations picture the right way and the wrong way of doing essential things. Get the book now.

8vo, 300 pages. $2.00.
 At all bookstores.
 The Century Co., New York City.

SHOESTRINGS
 By MAXIMILIAN FOSTER
 Author of "Rich Man, Poor Man," etc.

When Mr. Tams beat the bucket shop—
 He cleaned up thousands. He threw up his job as shoe walker and started to be a real gentleman—social light. But the army of sharks after his money, his fatal mistake in inviting all of Mrs. Wallop's boarders to his pretentious bungalow—and a queen other unforeseen difficult make his social flight short but eventful. Read this new book. "It's good for several laughs to say the least."—Phila. Press.

THIS IS AN APPLETON BOOK
 APPLETON-DOUBLEDAY-Page & Co.

THE MIDDLE PASTURE
 MATHILDE BILBO
 Published by (Doubleday, Page & Co.)

CHILD WELFARE
 You are careful about your child's companions. Are you as careful in selecting his books? He will seek out in life the counterparts of his heroes in reading. The Cupples & Leon imprint is a safe guide and safeguard; it stands for idealism in the selection and editing of MSS. of BOOKS FOR CHILDREN

CUPPLES & LEON CO.
 443 Fourth Avenue, New York.

THE HIDING PLACES
 A Novel by Allen French
 CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS

Basin King's New Novel

THE LITTED VEIL

WHEREVER BOOKS ARE SOLD
 HARPER & BROTHERS

Back to the swing and dash of "The Inner Shrine"

THE LITTED VEIL

A group of human and appealing characters
 There is a superb woman—and a mystery

THE SON OF TARZAN
 By Edgar Rice Burroughs

More Tarzan Thrills
 Like father like son. You know Tarzan, "King of the apes"—the wonderful man of the jungle. Here is his son—inheriting the lure of the wild. His adventures rank with those of his father for sheer danger, action and thrills. Follow him with breathless interest into the impenetrable jungle and enjoy the best of all the Tarzan tales.

At All Bookstores
 A. C. McCLURG & CO., Publishers

COLLEGE graduates, 25-35, wanted for engagement requiring initiative, diplomacy and tact. Business training, especially banking or brokerage, especially desirable. Knowledge of either French or German is important; applicant speaking both languages will have pronounced advantages. Social status of candidates will also be taken into consideration. No applicant less than five feet ten inches in height or weighing less than one hundred and sixty-five pounds can possibly be accepted; nor one without strong and attractive personality. Desires will include traveling, but preferably not to any country in the war zone. Good salary to start; increase as desired. Apply by letter, stating all qualifications, to Lawyer, 361 St. Office.

Read what happened when he secured this job, in the most entertaining novel of the season.

What He Least Expected
 By HOLWORTHY HALL

Illustrated, $1.50 Net, at all Bookstores. The Bobb-Merrill Company, Publishers.

THE WAVE

By ALGERNON BLACKWOOD, Author of JULIUS LE VALLON
 The Boston Transcript says—"Never before has Mr. Blackwood written a novel that comes so close to the real things of life as 'The Wave.' With a skill that is extraordinary he tells a story that is of absorbing psychological interest."

Price $1.50 net. Postage extra. At all Bookstores.

E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York

24,000 copies sold in England in one month.

A STUDENT IN ARMS

By DONALD HANKEY

Introduction by J. St. Louis Strachey, Editor of The London Spectator. Possibly the one real and great human book of the war. Enthusiastically commended by the leading men and women of our country—a book to enrich your understanding of a soldier's purpose, to kindle your patriotism and to stir your soul.

Price $1.50 net. Postage extra. At All Bookstores.
 E. P. DUTTON & CO., 681 Fifth Avenue, New York